INTRODUCTION.

I AM at last able to publish the second section of the SAM-YUTTA NIKĀYA, the first of which appeared three years ago. I am sorry for that long delay, and hope the following sections will appear at shorter intervals.

This section is longer than the preceding; it fills 95 leaves in the Burmese MS., and 58 in the Singhalese; whereas the first occupied respectively 82 and 48 leaves.

I.

The second section of the Samyutta-Nikāya is entitled NIDĀNA-VAGGO, because its first division, which comprises one half of the whole, deals especially (or rather begins by dealing) with the paṭicca-samuppāda, commonly called Nidāna. The first section is called Sugātha, because one or several verses (gāthās) are inserted in every sutta; for which reason I said (vol. i. intr. p. xv) that "all the verses had been gathered together by the compilers of the book into that section, and the four others were without verses." This was a mistake that I wish to rectify, as a few verses are to be found in the present section; and others also will occur (I know) in the third, and (I think) in the following ones. The number of these verses, it is true, is very small; no more than 28 occurring in 17 suttas (in this section). Nevertheless, it cannot be said that it is "without a verse."

Another assertion is to be corrected. I said in the same volume (p. viii) that, in the Section II, or Nidāna, there are nine great divisions or Samyuttas. Now their real number is ten ; but there is some difficulty in the counting of these Saṃyuttas.

The first division contains eight chapters (vagga)¹ the seven first of which are very regular, consisting of ten suttas each ; but the eighth is less regular, as being distributed into eleven suttas. These eight divisions, put together, are called niḍāna vaggā, and should be considered as forming the Niḍāna-Saṃyuttam : but this designation I did not find in any of the MS. at my disposal. Yet I retain it because I cannot conceive why it is missing.

The eight chapters above mentioned are followed by a division entitled antara-peyyalam, and styled Sattantam ; it consists of twelve divisions. Now what Saṃyutta does it belong to ? It is not comprised in the recapitulation at the end, and does not seem to be counted among the Saṃyuttas. What is then to be done with it ? I consider it as an appendix to, or a ninth chapter of the Niḍāna, the first Saṃyutta, which therefore has nine chapters and 93 suttas. These nine chapters, comprising 93 suttas, fill up in the Burmese MS. 18 leaves out of 96 ; but it looks as if this important part of the whole Vagga were not even a Saṃyutta, or rather as if the Buddhists themselves were not able to make this enumeration of the Saṃyuttas.

Observe that the following section, the so-called Abhi-samaya Saṃyuttam, consisting of 11 suttas, is counted by the Singalese MSS. as the "first" (pathama), while in the Burmese MS. it is not marked by any number at all. The following Saṃyutta, the so-called dhatu, having four chapters and 39 suttas, is marked down in the Burmese MS. as the "second" (datiya) Saṃyutta, but is not designated by any number in the Singalese MS. The number 3 (tatiya) applied in the same Burmese MS. to the following Saṃyutta (the Anamatagga), which ought to be counted as the fourth, involves likewise the exclusion of the Niḍāna from the series of the Samyuttas. This is confirmed by the numbers pañcama (fifth) and aṭṭhama (eighth) being applied in one of the Singalese MSS. to the Lābhasakkāra and Opamma Samyuttas. This seems to us a remarkable fact; but, as the MSS. do not agree in this matter, and some Samyuttas are not accompanied by any number in any MS., we think that little regard is to be paid to the aforesaid numbers pathama, dutiya, tatiya, &c. Therefore, referring to the succession of the divisions, and to the general uddāna given at the end,—in the Burmese MSS. exclusively,—we divide the Nidāna-cagga as follows :

	CHAPTERS.	SUTTAS.
I. Nidāna-Samyutta	9	93
II. Abhisamaya-Samyutta . .	1	11
III. Dhātu-Samyutta	4	39
IV. Anamatagga-Samyutta . .	2	20
V. Kassapa-Samyutta	1	13
VI. Lābhasakkāra-Samyutta . .	4	43
VII. Rāhula-Samyutta	2	22
VIII. Lakkhaṇa-Samyutta . .	2	21
IX. Opamma-Samyutta	1	12
X. Bhikkhu-Samyutta	1	12
Total	27	286

II.

Therefore the total of the Samyuttas seems to be 56 instead of 55 given in the Vol. I. (p. viii) of this publication. But whatsoever the true total may be, we have here another way of counting the Samyuttas. What is indeed the SAM-UTTA-NIKĀYA? a compilation of Samyuttas. The Samyutta is the important and essential element of the whole. The distribution of these elements into five great divisions is, for us, of secondary importance; and we can number all the samyuttas, from the first to the last, without paying regard to the five great divisions, as well as the suttas, in each samyutta, without paying regard to the different chapters.

Thus, two ways of counting exist—one founded upon the division of the whole into five great sections (vagga), of the sections into Samyuttas, of the Samyuttas into chapters (vagga), and of the chapters into suttas; the other founded upon the division of the whole into Samyuttas, and of the Samyuttas into suttas. In consequence, as the first great section (Sagāthā) contains eleven Samyuttas, the ten Samyuttas of the present second section (Nidāna) become XII.—XXI. as follows:—

	SUTTAS.
XII. Nidāna Samyutta	93
XIII. Abhisamaya Samyutta	11
XIV. Dhātu Samyutta	39
XV. Anamatagga Samyutta	20
XVI. Kassapa Samyutta	13
XVII. Lābhasakkāra Samyutta	43
XVIII. Rāhula Samyutta	22
XIX. Lakkhaṇa Samyutta	21
XX. Opamma Samyutta	12
XXI. Bhikkhu Samyutta	12
Total	286

The first Samyutta of the third section (Khandha) will accordingly be numbered XXII.

The use of this second method will be found more easy to use for dictionary purposes and wherever else references are required. For example, instead of quoting a passage, as II. 1. iv. 5. 4, or II. 1. vii. 3. 2 (where the figures stand respectively for the Section, Samyutta, Chapter, Sutta, and Paragraph), we can now say XII. 25. 4 and XVII. 3. 2, these three numbers designating respectively only the Samyutta, the Sutta, the Paragraph, and giving all the information required.

Now, is one of these ways to be taken, the other to be rejected? We do not think so. The first ought to be preserved because it is indigenous, the second to be taken because it is more rational and simple. Therefore we have printed in our edition the divisions of the MSS., only adding to each Samyutta its number in the whole compilation, and to each Sutta its number in the Samyutta to which it belongs.

III.

To prepare this edition, I have made use of three of the MSS. that had been previously employed, one Burmese, two Singhalese. The Burmese, which belongs to the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris ("Fonds Pāli," No. 71), I designated there, and do so here again, by the letter B. The Singhalese MSS. are the well-known MS. of Copenhagen (S¹) and the MS. lent me by Dr. Morris (S³). To prepare the edition of the Sagāthā, I had only at my disposal a copy of the first made by Mr. Fausböll, who was so kind as to lend it me; for the present publication, I have been able to use the MS. itself which the Director of the Royal Library in Copenhagen very obligingly sent to the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris, that it might be at my disposal, a favour for which I feel most grateful to him. As to the MS. which belonged to Dr. Morris, it is now one of the Pāli MSS. of the Bibliothèque Nationale, marked 634 in the register of the "Fonds Pāli." These two Singhalese MSS. are referred to in this volume, as in the preceding, by the letters S¹, S³. I am sorry I was not able to mention S², which is the MS. of the British Museum (Or. 2344). Unfortunately I had no opportunity of going to London to examine it. Although S² be not mentioned in the present volume, this designation is not taken off and can always be referred to.

A fourth MS. gave me useful help; it is a Singhalese MS. of the Nidāna-vagga which belongs to the Bibliothèque Nationale, bearing the number 73, of the "Fonds Pāli," and which formerly belonged to Eugène Burnouf, bearing in his catalogue the number 146.

The title Sāratthapakāsinī—the name of the commentary of the Samyutta-Nikāya (of which this book is of course the second part)—is not to be found in it. It has no other title than Nidānavaggassa-atthavaṇṇanā (commentary on the Nidāna-vagga). Burnouf was not able, in his time, to identify the work; the frequent repetition of the word Saṃyutta said nothing to him, and he thought the work was to be referred to the Abhidharma class, as is stated in a note joined to the MS. and printed in his Catalogue.¹ I designate this MS. by the letter C, already used for the Commentary of the Sagātha (or first section), although the two MSS. are very different from each other, the first being Siamese and the second Singhalese.

So then these four MSS. have been examined and are referred to in the present edition in the following manner:

B. Burmese MS. of the Bibliothèque Nationale (No. 71 of the "Fonds Pāli").

S¹. Singhalese MS. of the Royal Library of Copenhagen.

S³. Singhalese MS. of the Bibliothèque Nationale (No. 634 of the "Fonds Pāli").

C. Commentary on the Nidāna-vagga, Singhalese MS. of the Bibliothèque Nationale (No. 73 of the "Fonds Pāli," No. 146 of the printed Burnouf's Catalogue).

IV.

In this volume I have acted upon the same rules of criticism as I followed in the preceding one. I have adopted no reading which is not supported by at least one of the four MSS. just mentioned. On the differences that exist between those MSS. I should like to add these few remarks. They are of three kinds; namely, as regards the text, the spelling, and the abridgments.

As to the first point, which is by far the most important, there is not much to be said. One of the most curious of those differences results from the transfer of the succession of negative and affirmative terms, a remarkable instance of which is to be found at page 122 in this volume. I have endeavoured not to omit any of these various readings. Those that have been rejected, not without hesitation, will be found recorded in the notes.

The difference with regard to spelling, though merely external, is perhaps more perplexing. Some words that occur very often are spelt in different ways (sometimes in the same MS.), either with a double or single letter, nap-pajānāti and napajānāti, bahusuta and bahussuta, either with a cerebral or a dental, paṭhama and paṭhama, paṇita and paṇita. These diversities seemed to me important enough to be pointed out, though the doing so has occasioned a great increase in the number of notes. Perhaps it would be better to draw up a list of such words specifying the different ways in which they are spelt, and then not have to mention them in the notes. This is what I intend to do in the next volume as Professors T. W. Rhys Davids and Estlin Carpenter have done in their edition of the Sumaṅgala-Vilāsini.

But the greatest perplexity arose from these tedious repetitions which even the Buddhists themselves thought fit to cut short. Unfortunately the passages omitted or preserved are not always the same, nor are the texts uniformly abridged in all the MSS. This troublesome disparity was, I must confess, one of the causes of the delay in the publication of this volume. I had to choose the best abridgments: as the "Great Man"—Si parva licet componere magnis—I was appossukko (but little eager) to undertake this task. But upon trial, it proved to be less troublesome than it had seemed at first, only at times somewhat puzzling. And as a rule I have preferred the shorter arrangement.

Notwithstanding these abridgments, the number of the remaining repetitions is still very great. It often seems as if it would have been better suitable to lessen it. But I could not take upon myself to venture upon the alteration of the text given by the MSS. In some instances, however, but very rarely, I suppressed a word which came ever and again. In two occasions only (pp. 28 and 117), I did not repeat a long development that reproduced (without any change, or with a mere change of name) a passage that had preceded. These abridgments of mine are signified by the well-known symbol °.

V.

All the above-mentioned discrepancies occur more especially as between the Burmese and the Singhalese MSS. So much I may venture to assert, although I had at my disposal only one Burmese MS. and two Singhalese MSS. The agreement of these latter is very remarkable; while the variations are slight; and often a blunder existing in both is corrected in one of them (perhaps by another hand). This constant resemblance is the more astonishing as the two MSS. cannot be considered as proceeding the one from the other. One of them was only recently brought over from Ceylon to London; the other was deposited in the library at Copenhagen many years ago. My one Burmese MS. I was not able to compare with any other; but I make no doubt that the result of the comparison would be the same as for the two Singhalese MSS.

One of these diversities between the Burmese and the Singhalese MSS. seems peculiarly fit to be noticed here. The passages omitted in case of abridgment are always represented by —pe— in the Singhalese MSS., instead of which the Burmese MSS. have “pa” or “la” and sometime gha. I use ordinarily pe, but in cases where I follow the Burmese, I put pa or la or gha according to the MS.; whence the reader may conclude, without any further advice, that a passage noticed “la” or “pa” or “gha” is abridged in the Burmese, but complete in the Singhalese MSS. This rule I intend to observe more constantly henceforth, in order to diminish the number of the notes.

I have added to the text, as I did in the preceding volume, an appendix containing:—

- I. The INDEX of proper names.
- II. The INDEX of the titles of the Suttas.
- III. The INDEX of Gāthās.

I at first hoped to be able to add a fourth index, that of the Upamas (comparisons), which are to be found in great numbers throughout all Saṃyuttas, although one of them (the Opamma, Saṃyutta No. IX.) is especially a collection of Upamas. I began to carry out this plan; but I found this task more difficult than I had expected. Such a list would be either too long or too short; and after some trouble I finally decided to give up the design.

APPENDIX.

APPENDIX.

In the following indices, the several Saṃyuttas distributed into their numerical, not alphabetical order, are designated by the hereunder numbers and abbreviations :—

- XII. Nid. = Nidāna Saṃyuttaṃ
- XIII. Abh. = Abhisamaya Saṃyuttaṃ
- XIV. Dhā. = Dhātu Saṃyuttaṃ
- XV. An. = Anamatagga Saṃyuttaṃ
- XVI. Kas. = Kassapa Saṃyuttaṃ
- XVII. Lābh. = Lābhasakkara Saṃyuttaṃ
- XVIII. Rā. = Rāhula Saṃyuttaṃ
- XIX. Lak. = Lakkhaṇa Saṃyuttaṃ
- XX. Op. = Opama Saṃyuttaṃ
- XXI. Bhi = Bhikkhu Saṃyuttaṃ

The arabic numbers following these indications relate to the suttas of each Saṃyutta, pointing out the place occupied by the Sutta in the Saṃyutta, without discrimination of chapters.

INDEX OF THE GĀTHĀS.

The gāthās which were already in the first Section of the Saṃyutta Nikāya, the Sagāthā, are marked with (*)

The numbers subjoined between () point out the rank of the gāthā, when they are many in one sutta. The absence of such a number shows that in the sutta no more than a single gāthā is to be found.
